Fire safety at Vines

From a press release:

Vines Students Learn Fire Safety from a Pro
